Something to Live For

We can sympathize with the poor man who went to a psychologist and said, "Doc, I'm ready to end it all. I have nothing to live for anymore." The doctor said, "What do you mean you have nothing to live for? Your house isn't paid for. Your television isn't paid for. Your furniture isn't paid for. You haven't paid me for this visit. What do you mean that you haven't got anything to live for?"

Well, I hope you are not living just to pay your bills. The will to live is a gift from God. He gives us every reason to live. Just look around. However, some people are killing themselves in small increments. Their destructive behavior is going to eventually lead to their pre-mature death. They may die earlier than God intended because they insist on self-destructive behavior.

Recovering from such behavior happens when some steps are taken. Those steps can lead to freedom, deliverance, hope, self-respect and confidence in the future. You can find someone to live for. The one who created you knows that you will best function when you are in His plan for your life. Seek a higher power than yourself. His name is Jesus.

He said, "...If the Son sets you free, you are free indeed." Start on your journey to recovery. Be free.
